

Lori Anna Reid in concert
with George Koller, Mike Janzen, and Greg Hawco

Wednesday, June 3rd, 8 p.m. Doors at 7:30
Saint-Stephen-in-the-Fields, 103 Bellevue, at College Street
(2 blocks west of Spadina), Toronto

"Her voice is hauntingly beautiful, and her sense of phrasing telepathic ...a great singer." Daniel Lanois

"Your arrangement of my song (Willie McBride/No Man's Land) is one of the best, if not the best rendition I have ever heard... thank you! It is deeply moving and original... reminds me why I originally wrote it."
Eric Bogle

"She has the voice of an angel...her Willie McBride is my favourite song." General Rick Hillier

Lori Anna Reid teams up with her extraordinary band of musicians, Mike Janzen (piano), George Koller (bass, cello), and Greg Hawco (guitar, percussion, vocals), for an evening of deeply moving and treasured songs.

A fan wrote recently following one of Lori Anna's performances:

What magical musical moments inspire your memories? Lori Anna Reid's performances will inhabit a place of truth, beauty and love in your mind's archives that you will want to take out and relive again and again. Truth - because her voice is clear and true, her arrangements faithful and personal and her relationship with her audience candid and without pretence. Beautiful - because her voice and her countenance coalesce to enrapture the listener in an experience of simplicity and richness which beauty alone inhabits. Love - because her musical stories and melodies flow graciously from her lovely heart to your own. Her music has the power to transport you from the anxieties of this present moment to a place where ethereal sound waves are embodied in soulfulness, more substantial than the troubles of today. Trip through time as her arrangements connect the ancient and the modern, creating a continuity between those passed whom we honour and those whose arms embrace us even now. Attend the show with someone you want to love more deeply, even if this friend is your relationship with yourself. Bathed in song, you will return home from Lori Anna's shows with a warm glow that your friends will comment upon the next day; such is the healing, restorative power of her music.

Don't miss this rare opportunity to experience the vocal stylings of this gifted Newfoundland-born songstress in an acoustically intimate setting. If you like old-fashioned ballads, heart-wrenching original folk/roots songs, and deep Newfoundland soul that you definitely won't hear on commercial radio, this is the concert for you. We hope you will come and bring someone you love.
